Our Commitment

Embracing Independence

Our goals remain to help people with special needs to live and work as independently as possible, to increase the ways they can contribute to their communities in meaningful ways and to advocate for their inclusion in all aspects of their communities. By embracing person-centered thinking, we will serve the people with special needs with dignity, respect and understanding. We believe our philosophical approach in the delivery of our services offers the genuine road to independence.

Respecting Employees

As an agency, Allies respects every employee as an individual and as a valued member of the Allies family. We provide ongoing training and support so that fellow employees have the resources to accomplish their duties professionally. Both ensuring job security and providing equal opportunities for career development and advancement will continue to be among our highest priorities. The concerns of our employees will be met with open-mindedness, and we will work to provide opportunities for employees to voice their suggestions. Allies will always be attentive to the needs of employees and to employees' obligations to their families.
